The Estate of L. Budd

'There are only two paths open to mental research, where our desire branches; aesthetics on the one hand and on the other, political economy. Everything which by itself, pure, for lack of meaning, as it were, before the appearance of the viewer, must be restored'. L. Budd Notebook 2003

L. Budd is known to have exhibited in New Zealand and overseas between the years 2000-2009. She is believed to have passed away during the year 2005.
